Washington, D. C. 20231

Dear Sir:

In response to the Office Action of January 27, 1982, please amend the claims 89, 91, 95-97, 101, 104, 106, 108, 110, 112 and 114-115, as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

D1

89. The improvement of Claim 86 including means for adjusting the inductance value of said inductor to adjust the amount of light output of said gas discharge lamp when connected thereto.

D2

91. The ballasting circuit of Claim 90 including means for connecting a gas discharge lamp in circuit with said output terminals, said connecting means comprising means for limiting the current provided to said gas discharge lamp when connected therewith.

D3

95. The inverter of Claim 94 wherein said load connecting means includes means for connecting [is] a gas discharge lamp
as the load.

96. The inverter of Claim 95 wherein said connecting means includes means for connecting said gas discharge lamp [is connected] in parallel with the capacitive element of said LC series circuit.
